

Parallel Structure Exercise

Complete each sentence, making sure that you pay attention to parallel structure.

Example: You can drive, walk, or _____ to the mall.

You can drive, walk, or ride the bus to the mall.

1. When at the mall, I always notice the people, merchandise, and _____.
2. Some people are in a rush; _____.
3. Some people just want to go in, buy what they need, and _____
_____.
4. Others window shop, try on some clothes, and _____.
5. Some people see shopping as a conquest to find the best sales, _____
_____, and buy only when they can't do better elsewhere.
6. When shopping with these people, not only will they tell you their most outstanding finds, but also _____.
7. I notice changes at the mall like new stores, events, and _____.
8. Some stores advertise in their windows; _____
_____.
9. I'm always noticing, remembering, and _____ stores with interesting window displays.
10. I would prefer to shop at a store with quality merchandise rather than _____
_____.
11. Other people would rather have a bargain than _____.
12. People also attend fashion shows, demonstrations, and _____.
13. Catching sales, _____, and meeting with friends are my favorite things about the mall.
14. Being at the mall is stimulating and _____.